

The Hoarding Task Force

Join the Hoarding Task Force!

Do you want to know what causes hoarding? Do you want to learn how to support someone who has the disorder? Are you a hoarding professional looking to network with others in your area? The task force may be the opportunity for you!

Interested in the Hoarding
Support Groups?
Turn the paper over!

The Hoarding Task Force of Greater Dallas is open to professionals, consumers, those affected by hoarding, and their family and friends.

MISSION:

- To educate and support professionals and other interested people in the area of hoarding and its related disorders
- To inform the community at large of the particular aspects pertaining to hoarding and those affected by this disorder

Location:

Mental Health America Dallas
624 N. Good Latimer, Expy., Suite 200, Dallas, TX, 75204

Date/Time:

Every 4th Tuesday of the month (except July and December)
11:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Hoarding and Cluttering Support Groups

Come Join Our Support Groups!

Interested in the Hoarding
Task Force?
Turn the paper over!

What's the first step I need to take to stop hoarding? Where can I find a community that will support me in my recovery? If you're currently looking for resources, then our support groups might be a good fit for you!

Location:

Mental Health America Dallas (3rd Floor)
624 N. Good Latimer, Expy., Suite 200,
Dallas, TX, 75204

Date/Time:

2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month at 10:00 AM -11:15 AM

Contact: KeLaine at 214-296-7314

Location:

Dallas Central Library (8th Floor, McDermott Conference Room)
1515 Young Street, Dallas, TX, 74201

Date/Time:

Sundays at 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Contact: Beatriz at 214-549-6636

Required: Buried in Treasures 2nd Ed.
Workbook